- Yes, I will attend the 2009 Program and National Congress Planning Symposium to help strengthen our community capability to prepare and respond to a national threat or crisis. My acceptance information, registration and payment details are completed below, reflecting qualifying grants and scholarships.
- I plan to attend the Partners' Reception in Washington, D.C. from 5:30-7:30 pm on December 15th.

Through my participation in this Symposium, I'll help identify, develop and share best practices with government leaders, citizens, community and private sector representatives who can partner and collaborate in their communities through pilot projects to share assets, improve planning and training capabilities; and identify key recommendations for the new administration that can better prepare and strengthen our national capability to respond during the first 72 hours of a national or large-scale crisis.

- I want to appoint my Alternate(s) to come with me to this Congress, or to represent me if I cannot attend. I've listed his/her name(s) below and provide their information so that you can contact them with the event information.
